

Where are they now?

May 2008

- Jane Adamson (86-90) and Kate Adamson (88-93) were made honorary life members of the Banksia Park Concert Bands.
- Matthew Agius (95-07) recently gained a job at the South Australian Amateur Football League as a reporter for the 'Sportsbeat' magazine. Matthew continues to study full time at uni as well.
- Mark Amphlett (95-99) and his wife had a son William born in March 2008, a brother for Cooper and Cailin.
- Melissa Berzins (93-99) got engaged to Toby in 2008 and the wedding is planned for November 2009.
- Vanessa Berzins (94-03) married Christopher Jolly in March 2008 at The Stockade.
- Damien Brown (90-95) completed a BSc (Hons) at Adelaide University and a PhD (Immunology) at Cambridge University (UK). He was awarded the prestigious Gordon Piller Scholarship by the Leukaemia Research Fund (UK) and is currently studying on the accelerated graduate medical course to become a medical doctor. Damien married Charlotte Brown (nee Woods) from Surrey (UK) at St John's College (2005), Cambridge UK when he was studying for his PhD. He also worked as a research assistant at the Child Health Research Institute (Women's and Children's Hospital, SA) and Department of Pathology, Cambridge University, UK in between his BSc and PhD.
- Stuart Duisberg (87-91) is married and has two boys. Stuart lives in Adelaide and works as a Business Development Manager for a national internet company designing websites.
- Vanessa Edwards (nee Wheeler) (94-98) studied nursing and is currently working in child protection for the Queensland Government Department of Child Safety. Vanessa lives in far north Queensland with her husband and their son, Max, who was born in July 2007.
- Rachel Jenkins (nee March) (97-01) married Jonathan Jenkins in April 2008 at Torrens Valley Christian Centre in Tea Tree Gully. Rachel is a primary school teacher.
- Jane Kara-Ali (94-98) completed a Bachelor of Applied Science (Conservation and Park Management) and a Bachelor of Education and is currently teaching Biology/Science in a high school in the Riverland.
- Renee Seymour (nee Roberts) (88-92) married Jason Seymour in 2001. They have a daughter, Tahlia, born in 2003 and a son, Jack, born in 2005. Renee is a project controller (Cost Schedule Analyst) in the Defence industry.
- Kimberley Shean (nee Terry) (93-00) and husband, Mark, had a baby girl, Teagan Kimberley, on March 14, 2008.
- Josie Sheridan (89-94) Josie works for Westpac Bank as a Customer Relations Manager and has been for 10 years. She manages complaints referred from mortgage channels and banking ombudsman complaints. Josie does some work related travel to Sydney and lived there for six months. She is getting married in August 2008 to Shane Herbig (old scholar at Faith Lutheran College - the place they used to go to for their German camp). Shane is a Civil Engineer and they have purchased a house really close to the beach at Semaphore Park.
- Scott Wheeler (93-96) is a petty officer with the Royal Australian Navy stationed in Darwin. Scott married Nicole in 2004 and has two children; Jaxon who is 3 years old and Summer who is 6 months.